Pouring Art

with Trish Heydorn

Live demo at CCMA
217 S. Lemon Ave.
Ontario, CA 91761

August 09, 2023

9:30 - 11:30

Multi-talented Trish Heydorn has been an AAIE Member for over ten years. Her creative ideas are endless, and she has used many mixed mediums in her art projects. Trish is also an award winning artist, instructor, and member of the AAIE Board, having experienced various positions, currently Corresponding Secretary. Enjoy her expertise and chipper personality in demonstrating 'pouring' at the next live meeting at CCMA on Aug 09th.

Re-Cap July Demonstrator, Sue Linn at CCMA

Once again, AAIE was so pleased to have Sue Linn enlighten us with her vast knowledge of art history. She covered Modern Art through the 1950s' with great detail, accompanied by a slide show presentation. AAIE members listened intently as Sue made the art of the past and corresponding world events come alive. It's apparent that she has, and continues to effect many students, adults, and artists to the world of art. As in music, Sue believes art holds a universal language and unites our world in positive appreciation.

Many thanks to Sue for sharing her years of scholarly knowledge to our artist members.

Thank You!

The Associate Artists of the Inland Empire has been a proud recipient of three Community Arts Grants from the Rancho Cucamonga Community and Art Foundation (RCCA AF). We received in June the announcement that our 2023-24 Grant request to support our Demonstrations and Art Shows was approved. Preview grants were used to develop our website and online Juried Art show. This is another example of RCCAAF promoting and helping the Arts thrive in our community.

A big thank-you to Susan Sluka Kelly and the RCCAAF Board.

Check it out!

The poster for the "Holt x Palm Altered Book Workshop" features a dark, textured background with the title "Holt x Palm" in a large, white, cursive font. Below it, "ALTERED BOOK WORKSHOP" is written in a bold, white, sans-serif font, followed by "with Chris Frausto" in a smaller, white, cursive font. The poster includes several circular images of altered books: one with a pink cover and a red heart, one with a yellow skull on a black cover, and one with a white cover and a yellow skull. The text "WHAT IT IS..." is followed by a description: "Learn how to create a one-of-a-kind art book by altering a vintage hardback with natural papers, unusual embellishments, vintage ephemera and whatever else you want to include to make it yours (pics, materials, stones)! Wine provided but you can BYOB." Below this, the "WHEN:" section states "Saturday, August 19th (During ArtWalk) 6pm - 8pmish" and the "WHERE:" section states "Holt x Palm 115 S Palm Avenue, Ontario CA 91762". A large, red, cursive "Sign Up!" is written across the bottom. A QR code is located in the bottom left corner, with the text "SCAN ME" below it. The Instagram handle "@HOLTXPALM" is also present.

Philip Latimer Dike

The San Antonio Collection – Early California Watercolors and More

CCMA presents a collection of early watercolor paintings, oil painting and serigraphs by Phil Dike (1906-1990), known to many in the Pomona Valley art community as a leading innovator of the California Style watercolor painting movement prevalent in the 1940s, 1950s and 1960s. All the works of art in this exhibition were completed during this mid-century period, and all were personally donated by Mr. Dike to San Antonio Community Hospital where he served as an art coordinator and consultant.

The artist reception includes a presentation at 2:15 pm by Woody Dike, son of the artist. He will discuss his father's relationship with San Antonio Community Hospital and Dr. Al Aita, who conceived of the idea of using fine art as healing.

Exhibit on view now through September 16, 2023
