Aug Demo Recap with Anni Toliver

V.P. Mark Rush opens our meeting

AAIE Members appreciated Anni Toliver's beautiful demonstration at CCMA. She took us into the relaxing world of Zentangle, a fascinating and inspiring way to doodle without planning using 5 simple symbols and opening up thousands of possibilities of easy but intricate patterns and possibilities. (I can't wait to try it!) Your imagination has no limits with crafting anything from material, to place mats, to framed art... whatever you can imagine. Thank you so much Anni for your inspiring demonstration!

Paul Speaker ★ Digitized Photography

Aug 10---Sept 28, 2024 at CCMA

Paul has been interested in photography since childhood, when he began with roll film, and a box Brownie. However, Paul began his artistic career as a cellist and spent five years at Julliard studying as a classical cellist. Shortly after Julliard, he enrolled in the US navy and proud of his 22 years as a Navy reservist. After active duty, Paul attended Brooks Institute of Photography in Santa Barbara, CA, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree with a double major in Industrial Photography and Color Technology. Shortly thereafter, he was hired by General Dynamics Corp, where he worked as an industrial photographer and color printer. When the facility was sold and moved, he switched to free-lance photography focusing on commercial, family, and wedding photography, moved to school photography photographing seniors and panoramas, then later became a full-time retoucher for a full-service portrait studio serving 6 photographers. Currently, Paul is semi-retired, accepting assignments and teaching photography skills.
