Join us this HALLOWEEN MONTH, with artist, Ray Tucker as he paints and talks about being 'true to your creative self'. Ray has vast experience, an AAIE Honorary Member former AAIE President, and art instructor and studio owner. After teaching at Mt. San Antonio College for over 40 years, it was time for Ray to discover who he really was as an artist. An accumulated art supply was perfect for mixed creativity. Ray will be discussing why we create art, how to discover your style, being mindful of your process and how your art is a reflection of your life experiences. Bring a clip board & soft graphite Pencil. Ray has a fun exercise for our members to participate in....for a PRIZE!

Art-of-the-month is welcomed and don't forget to arrive by 9:20 deadline so that Juan can display your work. Our demonstrator, Ray, will choose a winner at the end of the meeting.

Next month we will have Sherif Hakeem to demonstrate his intricate animals with Chalk on black paper. Fabulous!

Timothy Haerens

Contemporary Hard-Edge Explorations: Paintings by Mark Rush and Timothy Haerens

November 1 – January 25, 2026

Opening Reception:
Sunday, November 2, 2 PM – 4 PM

These two artists from the Pomona Valley have developed sophisticated abstract styles using the precision of clean lines and precisely defined forms. They are innovators whose works display movement in exciting and dynamic compositions. The art of both Rush and Haerens is evidence of the legacy of Karl Benjamin on contemporary painters.
