Ray Tucker October Recap

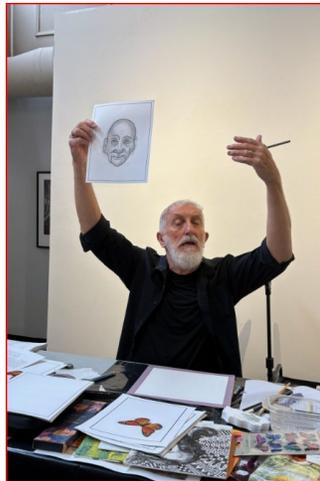

Beautifully created WC, adding a bird and credit card hack

Ray did it again! He never fails to amaze our members with his multiple talents. After teaching for over 40 years, Ray showed us how to create quick-working hacks with graphite; w.c.; charcoal; ink; & paint pens to make creating more affordable & fresh. Ray divulged his secret daily routine of painting each morning without fail. His books, his award-winning paintings, and his love of being an artist true to himself was indeed a reminder that every creation is good! We are all unique in our true artistry!

Every morning sketch habit

Every one freely drawn & unique
